More Pardons Asked For.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Among the crowds of applicants for pardon that thronged the President's house yesterday, there was a man who brought a letter to President Johnson from a distinguished lawyer, who was the following purport, that the bearer was a poor man who was not possessed of five hundred dollars, which he understood was necessary to obtain such a document, and trusted to the generosity of the President to grant the pardon.

Those who were present will never forget the language and manner of the President. He declared that the letter was a gross and unwarrantable insult, not only upon himself, but upon every member of his household, even to the humblest page in attendance. The man, by his order, was conducted to the door.

The Postmaster General has made a contract for carrying the mails from Virginia City to Helena in the territorial States, one hundred and fifty miles, three times a week, at a cost of $100,000. The President has recognized Adolph Rosenhan as counsel of Milwaukee for the Duchy of Dessau, R. Y. Fluehner as counsel of Sweden, and J. H. Forney for Wisconsin, and L. D. Stuts as vice counsel of the Swiss Confederation, at San Francisco, for the States of California, Oregon and Nevada, and the territory of Washington.

Loss of the Steamer Brother Jonathan

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The Alta Californian, of San Francisco, of the morning of the 3d inst., has been received by the steamer West, and has the following important intelligence:

Crescent City, July 30, via Jacksonville on the 2d.—The steamer Brother Jonathan struck a sunken rock off St. George Point, 8 or 10 miles east of here, at 11.30 p. m., to-day. All on board were lost, except seventeen persons, including nine children. Boats have gone to the rescue, but there are no signs of life. The ship was a swampy, and the boats were swamped along side of the ship, and three boats were left on board.

The following are the names of those saved:

James Patterson, third officer; David

The Wirz Commission.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The Wirz

Commission, which is to inquire into the reading of the record of yesterday, Dr. A. W. Barrows, who, having heretofore been sworn, identified a handwritten paper offered as in the handwriting of the prisoner, Dr. J. H.

Advocate accordingly moved to amend the first charge on which the prisoner is arraigned, by substituting the name of Josiah H. White, as one of the prisoners who were charged with conspiracy to cause the death of Union prisoners.

Mr. Baker objected to the motion to supply the misnomer. He argued that the prisoner was charged with the crime of treason, and that the original authority should supply the deficiency, no further testimony being needed. The Judge, Dr. J. H.

White and the prisoner, who had been charged with conspiracy to cause the death of Union prisoners, were confronted with the evidence.

Mr. Baker said that the name of John H. Winder also appeared as one of the alleged conspirators. The fact was, however, notorious, that Winder is dead, and this court was sitting here to try a man who was not in existence.

He moved to strike out his name.

By the Judge Advocate—Do you appear for Winder?

Mr. Baker—No.

Do you hold that Winder is dead?

Mr. Baker—I hold that he is dead and cannot be tried for conspiracy.

The Judge Advocate—We have not been told that he is dead.

Mr. Baker—It is a notorious fact of which the world has taken cognizance.

The Judge Advocate—Booth was dead

when the other conspirators were tried.

Dr. J. H. White was not in existence

when the other conspirators were tried.

He moved to strike out his name.
